

Partner Seminar Presented by the Center on Disability Studies at UH Mānoa:

Access to Independence: 'Ōpio Youth Transition Program

A FREE WEBINAR

Brock
Lyle

Youth Services Coordinator

Access to Independence-Hawai'i

More Information

Is transitioning into adulthood and taking on more responsibilities a challenge?

If so, learn more about Access to Independence, a non-profit Center for Independent Living in Honolulu, HI that assists those with significant disabilities in their journey to live more productive and independent lives within the community of their choosing.

Led by the youth service coordinator, this informational seminar will introduce the 'Ōpio (Youth) Program's transition services and other services like the transportation support services and how we are able to assist those in achieving a greater level of mobility.

Learn more about Access to Independence's:

- Mission and vision,
- Referral process for free services,
- Ways they help those with disabilities,
- Collaboration opportunities,
- And much more!!

Thursday, June 15th
1:00-2:00 pm HST

Register Now!
<https://go.hawaii.edu/p6X>

Registration QR Code